

NJAMHAA Honors Members for their Courage and Compassion

The New Jersey Association of Mental Health and Addiction Agencies (NJAMHAA) will hold its annual Courage & Compassion Awards reception on April 2, 2014 at the Pines Manor in Edison, NJ, to honor the following members:

Outstanding Leader in Mental Healthcare Services - Enrico DeGironimo, LCSW

Executive Director, Ocean Partnership for Children

Judy Remington Award for Consumer Empowerment - Sandy Grebel, MSW, LCSW

Clinical Specialist, Residential Services, Preferred Behavioral Health of New Jersey

Courage to Change - Melissa McLean

Program Trainer, Collaborative Support Program of New Jersey

Outstanding Leader in Addiction Treatment Services - Galindo King, MHS, LCADC

Executive Director, Freedom House

Outstanding Peer - Erika Reading

Peer Advocate, Catholic Charities, Diocese of Trenton

Excellence in Integrated Care - Nancy Schneeloch, MPA, BSW

Bridgeway Rehabilitation Services, Inc.

Doris Boyd Award for Outstanding Care/Case Management - Kyra Taliaferro

Case Worker, Family Advocacy Services Team, Jewish Family Service of Atlantic and Cape May Counties

Extraordinary Compassion in Mental Healthcare Services - Amy White, LPC, NCC, LCADC, ACS

Crisis Director, Camden County, Twin Oaks, Community Service

Outstanding Provider - Center for Family Services

Congratulations and infinite thanks to all of our award recipients, as well as all our other members who have an inspiring and an amazing impact on children and adults throughout New Jersey!