Budget Protects Vulnerable Citizens, but Leaves Behavioral Health System Underfunded

The New Jersey Association of Mental Health and Addiction Agencies, Inc. (NJAMHAA), which represents more than 150 hospital-based and freestanding providers of mental health and addiction treatment services throughout New Jersey, today expressed appreciation that the approved FY '11 state budget restores some resources for New Jersey's vulnerable populations, but noted that the fiscal plan still fails to adequately address the needs of the state's behavioral health care community.
