

Benefits of Individual NJAMHAA Membership

Who is eligible for individual membership?

Any mental health, substance use and developmental disability professional, including clinicians, finance professionals and others, is welcome to join because everyone can benefit from and contribute to the NJAMHAA network. Individuals who have retired from the field are also encouraged to join to stay in touch with the industry, especially if they are serving as consultants for provider organizations. Full-time students are welcome to join at a special rate to gain a competitive edge by learning about the latest news in the industry and networking with professionals from every corner of the state. The current rate for individual membership is $274 and the students' rate is $110.

Our mission is to champion, support and promote the value of our member organizations.

We do this by providing advocacy, visibility and professional development to facilitate our members' economic viability, which is essential to ensure their ongoing capacity to deliver quality, cost-effective healthcare and social services and supports to those they serve, as well as the entire mental healthcare, substance use treatment and developmental disability service community.

Membership Benefits Include:

- Enhancing your Ability to Serve your Community
 - Training opportunities throughout the year, ranging from workshops on timely issues, such as healthcare and payment reform, Medicaid and Medicare changes, cyber security and fraud prevention, to our premiere Annual and Fall conferences focusing on clinical, policy, technology and business topics
 - Invitations to participate in Membership Meetings, held every other month
 - Invitations to participate on Practice Groups (Addictions, Adult Mental Health, CFO, Children's) to contribute to our advocacy, share ideas, and network (not available to student members)
- Gaining Critical Information Relevant to your Field
 - Up-to-the minute information via electronic newsletters, e-mail alerts, social media and meetings about changes in state and federal legislation and regulations that impact the mental health, substance use and developmental disability communities
 - "Ahead-of-the-curve" information updates on requests for proposals, grants, funding, and trainings
 - Timely news on local and national events, rates, regulations, clinical studies, new best practices and more
- Discounted Member Rates and Exclusive Opportunities
 - Member discounts on conferences, trainings and advertising
 - Access to e-learning opportunities at great rates, offered by NJAMHAA's business partners
 - Subscriptions to NJAMHAA Newswire, an electronic newsletter published three times a week with the most current local and national news and announcements; NJAMHAA News, a quarterly publication dedicated to highlighting member achievements; and Bits N' Bytes, a biannual publication that shares valuable tips to keep your computer systems working safely and efficiently

This is what some of NJAMHAA's members are saying about us:

"I've been a proud member of NJAMHAA since 1989. The reason I've been involved is because NJAMHAA gets the job done. They're our voice in Trenton in good times and in bad. They are there for us when we need increases in funding, when we need to work on our workforce issues and in regards to regulatory issues." - Bob Davison, MA, LPC, NJAMHAA Board Member and Chief Executive Officer, Mental Health Association

"NJAMHAA has been a great partner with us by providing training and legislative advocacy alerts. I absolutely love the tenacity this organization brings in its advocacy to legislators and policymakers." - Kathy White-Thomas, MS, NJAMHAA Board Member and COO, Volunteers of America-Delaware Valley

For more information about membership and getting involved, contact Shauna Fuzes, Vice Pres., Public Affairs & Member Services, at sfuzes@njamhaa.org.

Please note: Individual members, including students, are not eligible to vote or run for the Board.
